

Federal Bar Foundation

The Federal Bar Foundation was incorporated in 1964 primarily to promote the administration of justice and the study of law. By Treasury Department ruling, contributions made to the Federal Bar Foundation are deductible for income tax purposes and bequests or lifetime gifts to the Foundation are deductible for federal estate tax purposes.

The Foundation sponsors a variety of continuing legal education programs and law clerk videoconferences at no cost to members as well as various educational publications and programs and exhibits of an historic nature.

In addition to the numerous personal contributions received, for which the Foundation is extremely grateful, the following firms and organizations are among those that also recently have made substantial contributions:
